

Reborn India Film Code of Conduct

At Reborn India Film Festival (RIF), we are committed to fostering a welcoming and inclusive environment for all participants, including attendees, filmmakers, volunteers, staff, and partners. Our Code of Conduct outlines the principles and guidelines that govern behaviour and interaction within our festival community. By attending our events or participating in any capacity, you agree to abide by the following Code of Conduct:

1. Respect and Inclusivity:

We value diversity and respect the unique perspectives and backgrounds of all individuals. Discrimination, harassment, or any form of disrespectful behaviour based on race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age, or any other characteristic will not be tolerated.

2. Professionalism:

We expect all participants to conduct themselves in a professional manner and treat others with courtesy and consideration. This includes refraining from disruptive behaviour, using appropriate language, and adhering to any instructions or guidelines provided by festival organizers.

3. Safety and Well-being:

The safety and well-being of our attendees and participants are paramount. Any behaviour that compromises the safety or comfort of others, including physical or verbal aggression, threats, or intimidation, will not be tolerated.

4. Compliance with Laws and Regulations:

Participants must comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and policies, both within the festival venue and in any related activities or interactions. This includes respecting intellectual property rights and refraining from any illegal or unethical behaviour.

5. Respect for Property:

Participants are expected to respect the property and facilities provided by the festival organizers. Any damage to property or unauthorised use of equipment or materials is strictly prohibited.

6. Responsible Consumption:

Alcohol and other substances may be available at certain festival events, but they should be consumed responsibly and in accordance with applicable laws and venue policies. Intoxicated or disruptive behaviour will not be tolerated.

7. Compliance with Policies:

Participants must comply with all festival policies, including ticketing, entry, and accreditation requirements. Failure to adhere to these policies may result in removal from the event or other disciplinary action.

8. Reporting Violations:

If you witness or experience any behaviour that violates this Code of Conduct, we encourage you to report it promptly to festival staff or volunteers. Reports will be handled with confidentiality and will be investigated thoroughly.

9. Enforcement and Consequences:

Violations of this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion from the festival without refund, and may also involve legal consequences if warranted. Decisions regarding enforcement will be made at the discretion of festival organizers.

10. Acknowledgment:

By participating in Reborn India Film Festival events or activities, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to abide by this Code of Conduct. Your cooperation in creating a positive and respectful environment is essential to the success of our festival. As participants of the Reborn India Film Festival (RIF), we uphold standards of conduct ensuring a professional, respectful, and enriching experience. We respect artistic expression, valuing constructive feedback while maintaining professionalism and collaboration among industry peers. Active engagement with content, respectful networking, and adherence to intellectual property rights are paramount. We prioritize a safe and inclusive environment, denouncing all forms of harassment or discrimination. Compliance with RIF policies, responsible alcohol consumption, and confidentiality are expected. Reporting any violations promptly allows for appropriate action, which may include expulsion or legal intervention. By participating, we acknowledge and agree to abide by this Code of Conduct, contributing to the success and integrity of RIF events. If you have any questions or concerns about this Code of Conduct, please contact us using the information provided on our website.
